WELCOME

It has been a challenging time for the arts and entertainment industries, however as we head into spring, there is an air of positivity as locked down cities look to a sense of normality on the horizon.

Join us on an escape to Italy as we share the best new Italian films including my top pick: the searing, Cannes-winning drama To Chiara (A Chiara) as well as a selection of award-winning and star-studded dramas, comedies, thrillers and a documentary; plus a selection of classic films featuring the Goddesses of Italian cinema, and a stunning Roberto Rossellini retrospective including Closing Night selection Rome, Open City.

As we've all experienced much uncertainty this year, including the cancellation and rescheduling of so many events, we have adapted communications to allow for these unpredictable times (such as generic session time info in later pages) and encourage everyone to register on our website for updates and follow our socials to stay in the loop on the most current news and dates for your city.

We are thrilled to be partnering with ST. ALI again this year and I look forward to seeing you at the cinema bars for a coffee, vino or aperitivo.

Un caro saluto,
Elysia Zeccola
Festival Director

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

IL FESTIVAL

L'Italian Film Festival viene fondato nel 2000 da Antonio Zeccola, nome di spicco tra i tanti migranti di successo, che è riuscito a creare in Australia una rete nazionale di sale cinematografiche che oggi comprende più di cento schermi.

L'idea originaria dell'Italian Film Festival nasce ventidue anni fa: Antonio si rende conto che in Australia esistono diversi festival cinematografici, ma nulla che sia dedicato interamente al cinema italiano.

Nel novembre del 2000, a Sydney e Melbourne viene inaugurata la prima edizione del Festival con la proiezione di Pane e Tulipani di Silvio Soldini. Il successo è immediato e strepitoso.

Organizzata interamente da Palace, società indipendente australiana, la rassegna continua a proporre sul grande schermo il meglio della produzione cinematografica italiana contemporanea, oltre ai grandi classici. Si tratta infatti di titoli che provengono dai festival cinematografici più importanti al mondo, quali Venezia, Cannes, Roma, Toronto e Berlino.

Da oltre vent'anni l'Italian Film Festival celebra la lingua e la cultura italiana, la Dolce Vita, riscontrando in ogni edizione un successo sempre maggiore con oltre 80,000 spettatori sul territorio nazionale: si tratta infatti del più grande festival dedicato al cinema italiano che si svolge all'estero.

Distinguished by an outstanding cast in top form, the stylish and involving new drama from award-winning writer/director Daniele Luchetti (La Nostra Vita, My Brother is an Only Child) charts the lives of a middle-class Italian family across three decades.

Naples, early 1980s. The once-happy union between Aldo (Luigi Lo Cascio) and his wife Vanda (a superb Alba Rohrwacher) is ruptured one evening when Aldo admits, unprompted, that he has been unfaithful. Equally hurt and bewildered, Vanda attempts to hide her pain from the couple's two school-age kids.

30 years later, Aldo (Silvio Orlando) and Vanda (Laura Morante) are still together, but their relationships with each other and grownup children Anna (Giovanni Mezzogiorno) and Sandro (Adriano Giannini) continue to be defined by what happened all those years ago.

The first Italian film in over a decade to open the Venice Film Festival, Luchetti's intricate and affecting film effortlessly shifts back and forth through the years, wresting new perspectives on age-old relationship conflicts. It's emotional, indelible cinema.

"Exceptional. A vivid marriage story with Ferrante flavour." The Times

ROME, OPEN CITY

ROMA, CITTÀ APERTA

A profound drama about the Nazi occupation of Rome and the brave few who struggled against it, Roberto Rossellini's Rome, Open City, is a towering and still powerfully resonant cinematic achievement, presented in a new 4K digital restoration.

The first to form what would become The War Trilogy and starring Aldo Fabrizi as a priest helping the partisan cause and Anna Magnani in her breakthrough role as the fiancée of a resistance member, Rome, Open City is a shockingly authentic experience.

Conceived and directed amid the ruin of World War II, with immediacy in every frame, it follows the resistance leader Giorgio Manfredi (Marcello Pagliero), who is chased by the Nazis as he seeks refuge and a way to escape.

Marking a watershed moment in Italian cinema, this galvanic work garnered awards around the globe and left the beginnings of a new film movement in its wake. Seventy-six years after its initial release this masterpiece has not lost its power.

"I try to capture reality, nothing else."

THREE FLOORS

TRE PIANI

Featuring a tremendous ensemble cast, the new drama from acclaimed auteur Nanni Moretti (Mia Madre, The Son's Room) traces the disparate lives of three families who reside in the same apartment block in Rome's stylish Prati neighbourhood.

On the first floor, a young couple (Riccardo Scamarcio & Elena Lietti) grapple with suspicion about their elderly neighbour. On the second, a mother (Alba Rohrwacher, also in The Ties) of two children fights loneliness in the absence of her always-at-work husband. And finally on the third, a retired judge (Margherita Buy) looks back on her past with her husband (Moretti), as they deal with their troubled twenty-year-old son.

As these stories entwine, the choices each resident makes will trigger life-changing repercussions, setting the course for their next decade and future beyond...

In this moving adaptation of Eshkol Nevo's acclaimed bestseller, Moretti once again shows his deft touch at balancing powerful themes and sentiment, inviting audiences to open up to the outside world and the lives of others.

"Moretti is one of the key makers of the modern personal cinema." The New Yorker

Born in 1953, Giovanni "Nanni" Moretti is an Italian film director, producer, screenwriter and actor. His professional movie-making career began in 1978 with Ecce Bombo, his first nation-wide success and a cult Italian film. TO CHIARA

A CHIARA

From multi award-winning writer/director Jonas Carpignano (A Ciambra, Mediterranea), To Chiara is a poignant drama about a teenage girl who learns some difficult truths about her close-knit family.

Gioia Tuara, Southern Italy. The Guerrasio family and their friends gather to celebrate the 18th birthday of Giulia, the eldest daughter of Claudio and Carmela. There is a healthy rivalry between the birthday girl and her 15-year-old sister Chiara (extraordinary screen discovery Swamy Rotolo) - who's clearly Dad's favourite - though it's a happy occasion. But Chiara gradually senses that something is very wrong, and then... her father disappears.

Chiara's mother exudes reassurances to her three daughters but offers no clear explanation, so the teenager begins her own investigations. The more Chiara learns, the more she is forced to decide what kind of future she wants for herself.

Ingenuously structured and building to a thrilling climax, Carpignano's neo-realist tale upends the mafia genre with an emotional and urgent new perspective.

DIRECTOR: JONAS CARPIGNANO

Born in 1984, Jonas Carpignano grew up between Rome and New York. As a graduate student at New York University's Tisch School of the Arts, he began directing short films that would later bring him widespread critical acclaim. His first feature film Mediterranea debuted at the Cannes Film Festival in 2015, and his second feature A Ciambra premiered at the 2017 Cannes Film Festival - Director's Fortnight where it won the Europa Cinema Label prize for Best European film.

THE FEMALE LENS

Italy has a great tradition of quality cinema, it is the country that has won the most Oscars for the "best foreign-language film" category. Its contemporary film production is supported by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation as an integral part of the promotion of the brand "Made in Italy" all over the world.

I am therefore happy to support the ST. ALI Italian Film Festival, the largest Italian film festival in the world apart from Italy, especially the section "The Female Lens", because Cinema needs a more feminine gaze not only in the direction but also in the script, in the scenography, in the editing, so as to generate a real change of sensibility. The road is still uphill but compared to when we only talked about Liliana Cavani and Lina Wertmüller, the women of Italian cinema are now many and loved and, above all, they are very young.

ELISA AMORUSO

Named by Variety as one of “Italy’s Women Filmmakers Set to Make Waves”, Roman director Elisa Amoruso is a graduate of literature, performing arts and screenwriting. She has written several acclaimed short films including David of Donatello Award winner Breathe (2005). After her recent documentaries the much-talked-about Chiara Ferragni: Unposted (2019) and Bellissime (2019), Amoruso makes her fiction feature debut with the personal coming-of-age tale Sirley, based upon the writer-director’s teenage years.

LAURA MUSCARDIN

With a background spanning cinema, TV and advertising, Laura Muscardin has directed and produced award-winning documentaries, short films and videos in Italy and abroad. Her latest film Cam’s War, awarded at the Giffoni Festival, tackles the struggle between good and evil and is set in an apocalyptic world where the protagonist Cam is catapulted from childhood to adulthood in a violent and sudden way. Said Muscardin “Taking responsibility for acting against negative forces is the central theme of this story, an intimate and rooted theme in every human being that takes on greater dramatic weight when set in a world where society as we know it today appears lost.”

ROBERTO ROSSELLINI (1906 - 1977)

Born in Rome on May 8, 1906, Roberto Rossellini was destined for the world of film, as his father, construction firm owner Angiolo Giuseppe Rossellini, built the first cinema in Rome, the 'Barberini'.

In the early 1930s, Rossellini worked in various jobs and undertook his apprenticeship as an assistant to Italian filmmakers. An early documentary preceded his first feature film, The White Ship (1941). Shortly after the liberation of Rome in 1944, Rossellini started to film the anti-fascist Rome, Open City (1945) with Federico Fellini and Aldo Fabrizi, which won the Grand Prize at Cannes Film Festival. Two more neo-realist classics soon followed, Paisan (1946), for which he was nominated for a screen-writing Oscar in 1950, and Germany Year Zero (1948). After his Neorealist Trilogy, Rossellini produced two 'transitional films': Amore (1948) and La macchina ammazzacattivi (1952).

Famous collaborators Rossellini and Ingrid Bergman's first work together was Stromboli (1950) where they became lovers, causing an international scandal as they were both already married. Together, they had three children and worked on films including Europa '51 (1952), Siamo Donne (1953) and Journey to Italy (1954). During the 1950s and '60s Rossellini directed a number of works for the stage and directed his first film for television in 1956.

Standing as one of the greatest directors in Italian film history, and pivotal in the postwar rebirth of Italian cinema, Rossellini's realistic style strongly influenced the development of important talents, including Federico Fellini and Martin Scorsese.

FELLINI FORWARD: FROM THE CREATIVE GENIUS OF FEDERICO FELLINI

Direct from its Venice International Film Festival premiere, this pioneering project is a one-of-a-kind film documenting the process of making a short film and asks the question, what if technology could revive an artist's legacy?

In this incredible experiment, human and artificial intelligence collaborate to try the impossible: bring back to life the creativity of the genius of one of the greatest directors of all times, Federico Fellini.

Preceded by a fascinating short film inspired by the life of Fellini and set in the heart of Rome, which reveals a metaphorical story of the debut and evolution of the Maestro in the cinema world, from the very first spark of his passion as a young man up to his outstanding creations, the audience then follows a documentary on the making of Fellini's imaginary journey.

In collaboration with Fellini's family and former colleagues, directing duo Zackary Canepari and Drea Cooper capture the making of this short film by Maximilian Niemann and explore the future of cinema in this unique Campari Red Diaries project.

CAM'S WAR

LA GUERRA DI CAM

From Official Competition at the Giffoni Film Festival, director Laura Muscardin takes us on perilous adventure, set in the future, in a world where wars and devastating natural disasters have destroyed all human infrastructure and plunged the world into a dark savage age.

What remains of civilization is concentrated in small, closed citadels, while bands of armed outlaws roam through abandoned suburbs raiding and spreading terror. Very few dare to cross these ravaged wastelands and those who do will struggle to survive.

It is in this apocalyptic world that Cam and Dede, siblings who grew up in isolation in an old mine protected by their mother, embark on a journey in search of an escape route to the sea to save themselves and find freedom. To reach the ports, they must embark on a long, extremely dangerous journey where they will face many dangers from humans and nature itself, both equally merciless.

EVERYTHING'S GONNA BE ALRIGHT

COSA SARÀ

A touching personal story from director Francesco Bruni, Everything's Gonna Be Alright follows a man forced to reevaluate his relationships in the face of illness.

The life of Bruno Salvati (the outstanding Kim Rossi Stuart, The Best Years, 2020) is at a standstill. His films have never been successful and his wife Anna, from whom he recently separated, seems to have moved on. As for his children Adele and Tito, he is unable to be the present and reliable father he would like to be.

One day, Bruno discovers he has Leukaemia. Finding a competent and tenacious haematologist, who guides him on an obstacle course towards recovery, the first goal is to find a compatible stem cell donor. After a few failed attempts, Bruno's confidence is shaken, until his father brings new hope by revealing a long-held secret.

Depicting illness with humour and confidence, Bruno and his family embark on an unexpected journey of rebirth, changing their relationships forever and learning that "everything's gonna be alright".

GLASS BOY

GLASSBOY

A heart-warming tale of courage and adventure, Glass Boy tells the story of 11-year-old Pino who is trapped in a small town and fed up with a life that is always the same. Confined to his family's huge and elaborate villa, owing to a rare form of haemophilia, his life is controlled by his overly protective family.

Pino, animated by an unbridled desire for freedom and boundless courage, defies his fragile condition, the fears of his parents and the beliefs of his domineering grandmother when he meets the Piazza Vecchia Gang, a group of new friends who encourage him to leave the safety of his room and live his life like a normal child.

Featuring Andrea Arru in his first starring role as the daring Pino, Glass Boy is a modern-day fairy tale loosely based on Fabrizio Silei's children's book Il Bambino di Vetro. A tribute to great family movies like ET and The Goonies, this moving family-friendly story filled with humour celebrates the power of friendship.

HIDDEN AWAY

VOLEVO NASCONDERMI

Winner of the Berlin International Film Festival Silver Bear, Elio Germano delivers a knockout performance in Hidden Away, an authentic and visionary portrait of the exceptional artist Antonio Ligabue.

The son of an emigrant Italian mother, Toni (Elio Germano, Bad Tales IFF20) is deported from Switzerland after his mother's death. Sent to Italy against his will, he lives for years in abject poverty on the banks of the river Po, with no fixed abode and little work, but remaining true to his great passion for drawing.

Meeting the sculptor Renato Marino Mazzacurati sets him on the path to liberation as he convinces him to take up painting. Marginalised and often mocked, Ligabue becomes an imaginative artist who paints a fantasy world of tigers, gorillas and jaguars.

Delving into the artist's dark side and horrific visions, but also his need to be understood and acknowledged, director Giorgio Diritti delivers a passionate biopic about Antonio Ligabue, a revolutionary loner in modern art.

IF YOU CARE FOR ME

SE MI VUOI BENE

A man with a knack for accidentally setting off catastrophes decides to help his friends but causes more trouble in this bittersweet comedy starring the hilarious Claudio Bisio.

Diego (Bisio), a successful lawyer, is chronically depressed. One day he meets Massimiliano (Sergio Rubini), owner of an eccentric shop in Chiacchiere that sells nothing except conversation. By chatting with him, Diego understands the solution to get out of his emotional slump is to do good for his loved ones.

With his new friend Massimiliano's help, Diego identifies the problems that he believes afflict his mother, father, brother, daughter, friends, even his ex-wife and concocts an elaborate plan. Unfortunately for them, Diego's best-laid plans often end up causing them the most trouble. But all is not lost, as he is determined to get it right this time.

Based on his eponymous novel and featuring a brilliant ensemble cast, writer-director Fausto Brizzi delivers a reflective comedy about friendship and the importance of listening to each other.

LIKE A CAT ON A HIGHWAY 2

COME UN GATTO IN TANGENZIALE - RITORNO A COCCIA DI MORTO

The second chapter of the blockbuster comedy Like a Cat on a Highway (IFF18) sees the return of Paola Cortellesi and Antonio Albanese as foul-mouthed, tattooed Monica and radical chic intellectual Giovanni, three years since the end of their love story.

When Monica ends up in jail because her stepsister twins (Alessandra and Valentina Giudicessa) hid stolen goods in the oil drums of "Pizza e Samosa", she calls Giovanni for help as her son Alessio (Simone de Bianchi) is in England. To get Monica out of prison, Giovanni succeeds in replacing the detention with community service in the parish of San Basilio led by Don Davide (Luca Argentero), who is as handsome as he is pious.

Thus, Monica and Giovanni's lives are intertwined again, but when they organise a lunch in Coccia di Morto with the whole family, the unthinkable happens...

An unmissable comic delight, Like a Cat on a Highway 2 is great fun, and reunites two of Italy's best-known and much-loved comedy actors.

PADRENOSTRO PRESENTED BY MIFF Melbourne International Film Festival

PADRENOSTRO

Rome, 1976. Valerio (Mattia Garaci) is ten years old and has a vivid imagination. When he witnesses, together with his mother Gina (Barbara Ronchi, Feel Your Memories IFF20), the attack on his father Alfonso (Pierfrancesco Favino in his Venice Film Festival Best Actor-winning role, The Traitor IFF20) by a terrorist group, his childhood is turned upside down.

From that moment, fear and a sense of vulnerability leave a dramatic mark on the feelings of the whole family. But it is in those difficult days that Valerio gets to know Christian (Francesco Ghoghi), a boy not much older than him. Solitary, rebellious and bold, he seems to have appeared out of nowhere. Their encounter in a summer full of discoveries will change their lives forever.

The social turmoil of Italy's 'Years of Lead' are at the heart of writer-director Claudio Noce's semi-autobiographical third feature Padrenostro, a personal story inspired by his own family trauma that views the harsh adult world from a child's perspective.

PAOLO CONTE - VIA CON ME

PAOLO CONTE - VIA CON ME

An enthralling documentary following the life and work of Italian singer and composer Paolo Conte, Paolo Conte - Via con me tells the story of an eclectic figure spanning his 50-year career.

Delving into the labyrinth of Conte's songs, with songs written for a wide range of performers including Adriano Celentano, Enzo Jannacci, Jane Birkin, Caterina Caselli, Bruno Lauzi, and that of his passions - jazz, puzzles, painting, law, the movies - the film is a continual exploration of the familiar and the unfamiliar, of the stories, verses and songs that make up the fascinating world of Paolo Conte.

Drawing on the immense stock of material in Conte's personal archives, director Giorgio Verdelli combines it with footage shot for purpose: interviews, with friends and colleagues including Roberto Benigni and Isabella Rossellini, clips of international tours and other occasions in a unique career.

Narrated by Luca Zingaretti, this journey interweaves poetry and music through the songs, concerts, friends and reflections of the singer and is a must-see for music lovers.

THE PREDATORS

I PREDATORI

Winner of Best New Director at the 2021 David di Donatello Awards, actor/director Pietro Castellitto delivers an entertaining black comedy which sees two families from opposing social backgrounds collide.

The Pavone and Vismara families are complete opposites. One bourgeois and intellectual, while the other proletarian and Fascist, these apparently contrary family units share the same jungle: Rome. A trivial accident brings the two together and the madness of a 25-year-old will set them on a collision course, revealing that everyone has a secret, no one is what they seem - and we are all predators.

Buoyed by an inspired ensemble cast and featuring a vast network of characters, including an assistant professor obsessed with the mystery of Nietzsche's virginity (Castellitto); his father, a philandering doctor (Massimo Popolizio); his filmmaker mother (Manuela Mandracchia); a brash gun-shop clerk (Giorgio Montanini) and many others, The Predators goes to absurd lengths to reveal harsh, hilarious truths about class structure in contemporary Italy.

MALEDETTA PRIMAVERA

Upcoming Roman director Elisa Amoruso's semi-autobiographical fiction debut chronicles a young girl's plight as she strives to make sense of her place in the world under the not-so-watchful eyes of her dysfunctional parents.

It's 1990 and 13-year-old Nina's (Emma Fasano) incredibly messy family has been forced to move from the centre of Rome to its outskirts. While her parents (Micaela Ramazzotti and Giampaolo Morelli) are in a constant state of conflict, Nina starts classes at her new school, only to rapidly enter into explosive conflict with Sirley (Manon Bresch), a quarrelsome student from South America who dances the Lambada.

But antagonism quickly turns to friendship, and between the two an intense, very strong bond is created that will define their coming-of-age. Their friendship will lead Nina to discover her place not only in the world, but in the heart of her family.

THREE PERFECT DAUGHTERS

È PER IL TUO BENE

In this comedy hit set in Rome, Marco Giallini (Perfect Strangers IFF16, God Willing), Vincenzo Salemme and Giuseppe Battiston (The Big Step IFF20) star as three friends and brothers-in-law, Arturo, Antonio and Sergio, confronted with the same problem.

Furious with the three girls and convinced that their partners are completely unfit for such perfect daughters, Arturo, Antonio and Poli decide to join forces and do whatever it takes in order to hinder their relationships.

A hilarious comedy from director Rolando Ravello (screenwriter of smash hit Perfect Strangers) Three Perfect Daughters combines laugh-out-loud gags with social criticism to produce an entertaining tale of father-daughter relationships.

TIGERS

LE TIGRI

An enthralling drama about the considerable cost of excellence in a world where everything, and everyone, has a price tag, Tigers delves into the dark side of professional football in Italy.

Martin (a scalding Erik Enge) is one of the most promising football talents Sweden has ever seen. At sixteen, his lifelong dream comes true when he is bought by one of Italy's most prestigious clubs, FC Inter Milan. As he adjusts to his new reality, Martin learns his dream comes at a high price in terms of sacrifice, pressure and loneliness, and soon he begins to question the allure of the life he yearned for.

LASCIAMI ANDARE

Festival favourite Stefano Accorsi (The Goddess of Fortune IFF20, The Champion IFF19) stars as a man torn between the past and future in psychological thriller You Came Back, which closed the Venice International Film Festival last year.

Marco (Accorsi), and Anita (Serena Rossi, 7 Hours to Win Your Heart IFF20) discover that they are expecting a child. It is welcome news for Marco following the loss of Leo, his firstborn son with former wife Clara.

But the sudden arrival of the mysterious Perla (Valeria Golino, Euphoria IFF18) - the new owner of Marco and Clara's old house - disrupts all of their lives. She claims to feel a strange presence and hear the voice of a child in the house, and Marco soon finds himself caught between his tormented past and hopeful future.

Based on the 2012 eponymous novel by Cristopher Coake, director Stefano Mordini transposes the American ghost story to moody Venice in an engrossing gothic drama about love, belief and the difficulty of letting go.
